

DAI Chrono
27 MAR 1985
DDI-016-85/85

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

Director of Global Issues

STAT

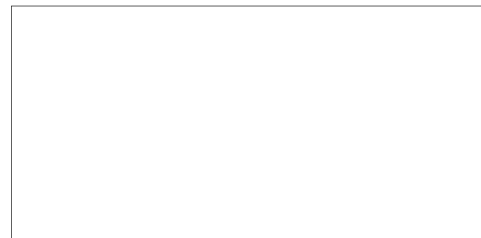

SUBJECT: Outlook for OPEC and the Oil Market

1. On behalf of the Office of Global Issues, I cordially invite you to attend the Outlook for OPEC and the Oil Market Conference that this office will sponsor at the Xerox Corporation Training Facility, Leesburg, Virginia, on 9 April 1985. The conference will run from 0900 to 1630. Approximately 15 experts representing oil companies, banks, and the academic community will attend and provide CIA with the benefit of their views on the outlook for the oil market and OPEC's role within that market. I have attached a conference agenda and a list of participants. We will also hold a cocktail reception at the Xerox Facility on 8 April between 1900-2030.

2. I hope that you will be able to join us for the conference and reception.

STAT

Attachments:
As stated

OGI/SRD/PRB: (25 Mar 85)

STAT

Distribution:

Orig - Addressee
1 - ER
1 - DDI✓
1 - ADDI
1 - DDI Reg
1 - D/OGI
1 - OGI/SRD
1 - OGI/SRD/PRB

Agenda

Outlook for OPEC and the Oil Market

Monday, 8 April

1500-1900 Arrival and Check-in at Xerox Facility
1900-2030 Cocktail Reception with Agency Officials

Tuesday, 9 April

0845 Administrative 0900 Opening Remarks
0915 Iran-Iraq Update
0930 Participant Views
1015 Coffee Break
1030 Participant Views
1100 OPEC Downstream Activities
1200 Lunch
1300 OPEC in the 1990s
1400 Coffee Break
1415 Anticipating the Unexpected
 a) Raising Prices and Cutting Output
 b) Pricing in a Basket of Currencies
 c) Higher than Expected Demand
1515 Question and Answer Period
1615 Summary Views
1630 End

STAT

STAT

Page Denied